

Model question set - 9

A. Write the correct alternative:-

- i) The name of the narrator's aunt is - c) Esther
- ii) Earlier in the narrator's family there were only - a) three members
- iii) The age of the narrator is - d) eleven years
- iv) Claude and the narrator played - c) pirate games
- v) People pitied the narrator and her brother for their - a) lonesomeness

B. Complete the following sentences

- i) The Big Half Moon is - an island
- ii) Claude and narrator had to make the most of each other because - there was nobody to play with them on the Big Half moon island.
- iii) The family sailed back to their island in - winter

Write [T] and [F] and provide supporting sentence

- i) The narrator never quitted the Big Half Moon. [F]
SS - In winter, when the harbour is frozen over, we all move to the main land.
- ii) Claude and the narrator hardly quarreled. [T]
SS. Claude and I never quarrelled.

2.A. Write the correct alternative-

- i) The poem has been written by - d) Ralph Waldo Emerson
- ii) The former called the latter 'Little Prig'. Here the former is - a) the mountain.
- iii) About the bigness of the mountain the squirrel had - c) no doubt.
- iv) 'And not half so spry' - Here the word 'spry' means - d) lively.

B. Answer the following questions:

i) What does Bun say about 'Talents'?

Ans: Here the little squirrel referred as Bun said that every different person possesses different talent, while the mountain can carry forests on his back, squirrel can crack a nut.

ii) Mention two limitations of the mountain.

Ans: A mountain is not as lively as the squirrel. The mountain cannot break a nut.