READING COMPREHENSION 1.

Read the following passage and answer the questions given below :

One quiet afternoon, he lay fast asleep and fell to dreaming again. Unknown to him, the ship stood offshore from his old farm. In Jon's dream the seasons turned rapidly and as each turned, so did Jon in his bed. Consequently, the cap on his head twisted round and about. It called up a squall from the clear sky that hit the ship without a warning. The wind had been whirling about the boat tearing the sails and snapping the spars. "Its' his fault," the sailors cried. They shouted in anger and fear and tried to rid the cap off his head. Well, they were unsuccessful, for it was a fairy cap.

Answer the following questions

i)What happened as Jon lay fast asleep?

Ans- As Jon lay fast asleep, he started to dream again.

ii)How did the squall arise suddenly?

Ans- In Jon's dream the seasons turned rapidly and so he was also turning in his bed, as a result the cap on Jon's head twisted round and called up a squall.

iii)Describe the condition of the ship in the squall?

Ans- The squall teared the sails of the ship and snapped the spars. The boat had been whirling in the storm.

iv)What did the sailors do to stop the squall?

Ans- The sailors suspected that it was Jon's fault and to stop the squall they tried to rid the magic cap off his head.

Dear friend Puja,

I am glad to receive your letter and you want to know about West Bengal's greatest festival Durga Puja. Well I will try my best to describe the grandeur of the festival of light and fun.

The entire Bengal specially Kolkata is decorated like a new bride. We have holidays for a week. Everybody go to the market and malls for shopping each day. We visit many temples and decorated pandals every day and offer prayers and prasada to Goddess Durga. The festival will end with the immersion of the idol. This is my most favourite time of the year. And the food during this entire season was mesmerizing. Every family prepared yummy rasgullas, jhal muri, shukto, shondesh, bhapa doi and more.

I wish this year you can join us during durga puja. I'll wait for your response and I hope you could come.

Your dearest friend.

Abanindranath Tagore

Abanindranath Tagore was the principal artist and creator of the "Indian Society of Oriental Art". On 7 August, 1871 Abanindranath Tagore was born in Jorasanko, Calcutta, British India, to Gunendranath Tagore and Saudamini Tagore. He had a sister, Sunayani Devi. Tagore learned art when studying at Sanskrit College, Kolkata in the 1880s.

In 1890, around the age of twenty years, Abanindranath attended the Calcutta School of Art where he learnt to use pastels from O. Ghilardi, and oil painting from C. Palmer, European painters who taught in that institution.

His idea of modernizing Mughal and Rajput paintings eventually gave rise to modern Indian painting, which took birth at his Bengal school of art. some of his notable painting are Bharat Mata, The passing of Shah Jahan , Ganash Janani e.t.c.

Abanindranath is also regarded as a proficient and accomplished writer. Most of his literary works were meant for children. Some of his books like 'Budo Angla', 'Khirer Putul' and 'Raj kahini' are best examples of Bengali children's literature. The famous artist died on 5 December, 1951.
