Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :

When you and I are together you often ask me questions about many things and I try to answer them. Now that you are at Mussoorie and I am in Allahabad we cannot have these talks. I am therefore going to write to you from time to time short accounts of the story of our earth and the many countries, great and small, into which it is divided. You have read a little about English history and Indian history. But England is only a little island and India, though a big country, is only a small part of the earth's surface.

Activity-1

A. Tick the correct answer :

(i) The author was residing at

(a) Mussoorie (b) New Delhi (c) Allahabad

(ii) Nehru would write letters to Indria

(a) everyday (b) time to time (c) once a while

(iii) England is a

(a) big country (b) a small nation (c) a little island

B. Answer the following questions :

(i) Why did Nehru want to write to his daughter?

Ans: Nehru was in Allahabad and his daughter was in Mussoorie and he wanted to answer every question of his daughter. So he wrote letter to her.

(ii) What did Nehru intend to write?

Ans : Nehru intended to write short accounts of the story of our earth and the many countries, great and small, into which it is divided

(iii) How is India compared with England?

Ans : India is a big country and England is only a little island. So in comparison to India, England is very small.

My dear brother,

I am very happy that I got your letter yesterday, I am going to write something about our village. Our village is small but very charming. You will have here fresh vegetables and pure milk in enough quantity. There are many marigold field with full blossomed as winter has come. But the thing you will enjoy most in our village is beautiful natural scenery. There is a small river close to our village. The river flows with its own sweet will. It adds to the beauty of our village. I am sure you will be charmed with the calm and quiet atmosphere here.

Take care of yourself, and write something about your locality.

With much love,

Affectionately yours,

Barsha
